

The table below lists the different roles used in Indigenous Health Data Reporting in the Health Data Portal, who is usually assigned these roles and the functions each of the roles can perform.

Role	Usually Assigned To	Data Portal Functions
Submission Uploader	health service staff responsible for reporting	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Create and submit manual data assets • Update and submit direct load data assets • Amend data values based on AIHW/Health/DSS feedback • View historical data assets as required • Download a report detailing a history of all data validation flags and accompanying responses in a data asset
Submission Reviewer	health service staff responsible for reporting	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Review and update data assets (including forms) as required • Amend data values based on AIHW/Health/DSS feedback • Return data assets for amendment as/if required • Submit data assets for approval • View historical data assets as required • Download a report detailing a history of all data validation flags and accompanying responses in a data asset
Submission Approver	health service CEOs or their representative	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Review and update data assets (including forms) • Mark any internal conversations as done as required • Return data assets for amendment as/if required • Approve data assets for submission to the AIHW/Health/DSS • Download a report detailing a history of all data validation flags and accompanying responses in a data asset
Submission Viewer	health service staff not involved in the data asset submission process Affiliate staff wishing to view data assets for health services	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • View Processed data assets in read only mode • Extract approved data files from data assets
Data Receiver	The AIHW (nKPI and OSR) Health (HCP) DSS FAMs (Performance Report)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Review health service data assets • Return data assets to the health service that have been sent in error • Add comments to indicators with data issues, for actioning by health services • Mark data validation issue comments as done as needed • Exclude certain health service data from reports if required • Process data assets (and attached forms) as complete
User Administrator	health service user(s) identified as responsible	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Assign roles and folders to users within their health

Role	Usually Assigned To	Data Portal Functions
	for the reporting process in the Data Portal	<ul style="list-style-type: none">serviceNominate users within their health service to be given QLIK Interactive Reports accessPerform functions associated with any other Data Portal roles they haveCreate user profiles within their health service for users from other services
Organisation Administrator	IHD Administrators	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Create organisation records in the Data Portal for new health services or health services that now need to reportUpdate organisation records to ensure they are accurate (including addresses and the data items the organisation can report on)View user records within their organisations to track completeness of role allocations
Interactive Report Viewer	health services The AIHW IHD Administrators DSS Grant Managers NACCHO Sector Support orgs MOH	<ul style="list-style-type: none">View interactive reports displaying health service nKPI data and how it compares to national targets and other similar health servicesView management reports that will (amongst other things) allow you to track the progress of health service's data assets through the data asset submission workflow (IHD Administrators and the AIHW)
Published Report Viewer	health services	<ul style="list-style-type: none">View and download health service nKPI Summary reports published in the Health Data Portal by the Department of Health
Reporting Round Administrator	IHD Administrators	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Create and update reporting round records